The experience of those, who have suffered the loss of a dear one, often includes a sense of instability, as if the very foundation upon which they had felt grounded has crumbled.

This program is designed to help you through the challenges of the grieving process by identifying and navigating the “stony” path to be traveled, and by re-establishing a foundation built on an eternal, unshakeable “Rock”.

We will provide support in:

- Taking the “pebble out of your shoe” & finding the hidden “gemstone”
- Deconstructing the “stone wall” and designing a “rock garden”
